

DOCKET NO.: 3:11-MJ-203-DCK

VS.

ORDER

According to the Defendant's motion, the Defendant was arraigned on his bill of indictment on May 19, 2011 before United States District Judge Miriam Goldman Cedarbaum. Among other things, Judge Cedarbaum ordered the Defendant's release on strict pretrial supervision and a $2.2 million personal recognizance bond, secured by the signatures of his two sisters and mother, as well as by the posting of six properties, one of which is the aforementioned home in Waxhaw, North Carolina.

The Defendant's motion essentially seeks to cancel the May 9 Deed of Trust regarding the Waxhaw, North Carolina home executed in this district in order to effectuate Judge Cedarbaum's Order in the Southern District of New York. The Defendant indicates in his motion that the assigned Assistant U.S. Attorney in the Southern District of New York, Brian Blais, has informed counsel for the Defendant in New York that the Government consents to this request.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, consistent with the foregoing, that the Clerk for the United States District Court for the Western District of North Carolina, Frank G. Johns, effectuate the cancellation of the Deed of Trust for which he is beneficiary for the property located at 212 Red Twig Court, Waxhaw, North Carolina 28173.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Mr. Johns take whatever further official action he deems appropriate to effectuate Judge Cedarbaum's Order in the Southern District of New York.

SO ORDERED.

Signed: June 7, 2011

David C. Keesler
United States Magistrate Judge
